

Saint John's Accrington

On July 1st 1916,
on the Somme in France,
the Accrington Pals'
went into battle
losing 500 men in the first half hour of fighting.

At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
We Will Remember Them.

In January 1992 a beautiful chapel was dedicated in the church of St. John the Evangelist in Accrington in memory of the Pals' and their sacrifice. St. John's is in need of a great deal of loving care - It needs repairs to its roof and walls and also to its electrical system; without this essential work the future of the Pals' Chapel is in doubt.

Please help us secure the future of St. John's by supporting our Aspire Fundraising Appeal.
